

Dead Romantics

love
and passion
have become a joke
a mockery

love is now
a word
for a tv
generation

there is no romance

no one
cherishes
lying in bed
just two people
together in bed

sex is no longer
a thing to be admired

it's simply something you do when
you can't sleep

and whores run
rampant in the streets
propagating more
and more whores

until
every last
man, woman, and child
has been anally raped-

I just want to watch a film
on the couch with a woman and hold her
knowing that

she's mine
