

Siete il Mio Cuore

I am a dangerous man to love because I am old

I have seen and done things most want to see and do

I am a dangerous man to hate because I am smart

I have lived a lot
in a little

I am kind to those I love which are few

and I am cruel
to those I dislike
which are many

when the world ends
I will be laughing

the days after good nights are dull

when I love
I love with my whole
heart

and when she asks me
if I love her

I say,
“Siete il mio cuore”

You are my heart.
